FINAL ACTION

Status of the Claims

1. This action is in response to papers filed 10 October 2006 in a Terminal Disclaimer was submitted. The rejection under obviousness-type double patenting over U.S. Patent No. 7,014,992 is withdrawn in view of the Terminal Disclaimer.

The previous rejection under obviousness-type double patenting over currently allowed application 09/452,277 is maintained.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 19-22, 26, 33-35 and 39-45 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 22, 26-27, 30-35, 37-45 of copending Application No. 09/452,277 in view of Okano et al (U.S. Patent No. 5,434,049. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both sets of claims are drawn to electrode immobilized nucleic acids wherein the nucleic acids are immobilized covalently via an insulator. The claim sets merely differ in the arrangement of limitations within the claim sets and further in that the instant claims are drawn to two electrodes. However, multiple electrode substrates for nucleic acid immobilization was well known in the art at the time the claimed invention was made as taught by Okano et al who teach that multiple electrodes provide for simultaneous detection of a plurality of nucleotide targets (Abstract and Column 2, lines 35-57). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the claimed invention was made to modify the '277 electrode by using additional electrodes as taught by Okano et al. One of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to do so for the expected benefit of for detecting of a plurality of nucleotide targets simultaneously as taught by Okano et al (Abstract and Column 2, lines 35-57).

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Response to Comments

Applicant requests that the above rejection be held in abeyance until allowable subject matter has been found in the instant application or the '277 application. A notice of allowance was mailed on 26 January 2006 for the '277 application. The rejection is maintained and made final.

Conclusion

No claim is allowed.
